

PHYLLIS LOUKE FLUTE CHOIR MASTERCLASS EVENT

On March 29th, 2008, from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. the Arizona Flute Society will be hosting a flute choir/ensemble day with Phyllis Louke. This will be similar to the day we spent with Christopher Caliendo last year. It will again be held at Scottsdale Bible Church, 7601 E. Shea Blvd., Scottsdale.

Phyllis Avidan Louke, an Altus Artist, is principal flute with Oregon Pro Arte Chamber Orchestra and Oregon Symphonic Band, Music Director of Rose City Flute Choir, and an active chamber musician. She teaches privately, adjudicates and freelances in Portland, Oregon.

Ms. Louke, a member of ASCAP, has been arranging and composing for the flute since 1990. Her arrangements and compositions have been finalists and received honorable mentions in the annual National Flute Association Newly Published Music Competition. Her music is published by ALRY Publications, Falls House Press, and Nourse Wind Publications.

Come join the fun. There is no charge to listen. We anticipate having as wonderful a time this year as we did last!
